MINISTRY REPORT

January 2015

Beloved in Christ,

I just stood there and watched the skinny little lady from a distance. She could've been a "mezitisa", an ethnic mix, Indian & Latin. She held a small baby, adorned with a colorful little silk something on its head. She was standing there figuring out which baby bottle she could afford to buy. She looked at the price, one by one, and reluctantly put it back on the shelf...she just stood there..starting to look at some cheap plastic glasses...then back to examine the baby bottles again..that did it. I respectfully approached her and said, "Senora would you allow me to buy a bottle for your little baby girl." Who by the way, turned to me with such an adorable smile, like she understood what I said. The mom, poor yet very dignified, with a shy voice, replied "Sir I cannot receive that, it doesn't feel right". I said, "I'm a grandpa but my grandkids are far away..may I give your little girl the bottle?" Tears filling her eyes, she nodded as I gave her pesos (enough to cover her needs for a week), Then 'JESUS' said, with the little baby smiling again at me, "May God bless you sir!" Wow, did I feel blessed, or what!/? Yes, I did remember what Jesus said, "Whatever you do for one of these little ones, you do it for Me."

So I pass that blessing on to YOU! Thank you one and all for helping Barbro, me and our team members, to be a vital part in the giving of the "eternal food" to "the least of Mine" in far away (for you) jungle villages in the Amazon! May God bless you abundantly!

I'm sitting here in Leticia, Amazonas, holding a Letuama language New Testament. The translator just received the doctor's diagnosis, that cancer has spread. We would like to rent this little house that the translators are now vacating. Their job is done, they spent their lives making sure that the Letuama people now have the Word. I hold the Book in my hand..that he has produced..I tell you, tears fill my eyes..of gratitude but also of an intense feeling...SOMEONE HAS TO USE THIS TOOL TO GO AND TELL THE LETUAMAS, to plant a church among them. As you read this, 35 Indians are attending our month long Seminar in Umariasu, Brazil, preparing to become National Church Planters, some of which may use the Letuama NT, or other NT translations among the approximately 12 remaining Un-reached jungle tribes in Colombia. This is an answer to your prayer to "the Lord of Harvest to send out workers" !

PRAISE God for advanced progress in obtaining light plane service to southern Colombia's jungle Tribes, details later. And for a Training Facility for Indigenous peoples that we now have been offered, by our partners, to be part of and teach more advanced courses for our returning students. Starting Fall in 2015.

PRAY for the above, and for Barbro and me to be able to sign the rental (3 bedroom 2 bath) house in Leticia, Amazonas, that the translators now are vacating. Cost $375/month. We also need to furnish it. If you would like to support us toward the rent payments, please mark your check "House Rent".
